THE MAYOR'S VETO

A communication was received from the Mayor vetoing the resolution passed by the Council, appropriating $470 for a sewer on Beech Street, from Main Street to Floyd Avenue. The Mayor stated that property owners in this locality now have sewer facilities. Mr. Pollock moved that the resolution be adopted over the Mayor's voto. A number of new houses need this sewer connection, thought Mr. Pollock. The resolution was adopted, notwithstanding the Mayor's veto by a vote of 21 to 1, Mr. West vot-ing in the negative.

The ordinance granting the American Cigar Company the right to install a cigar Company the right to instant a separate fire protection plant at their factory, at Twenty-third and Cary Streets, then came up. Hundreds of thousands of people surged through the streets of London from White Chapel to Buckingham Palace, but those which created the verb, "to Maf-fick." To-night there was a tremendous noise in the streets, a pandemonium of horns and cheers, but the abandon which marked the announcement of the relief fo Mafeking and Ladysmith was lacking. Women, many of them carrying babies, boys, drunken loafers and others, glad of any excuse to defy the law and order, were the principal elements in the ragged processions passing and repassing through the principal streets. The crowds con-centrated in regent street, and the strand' and let themselves loose. Women of the lower class jabbed men in the face with feathers flung an apology for confettl and in turn were hugged and kissed by any man who found time for such a diversion. A few helpless policemen stood around and watched the fun. One of the favorite decorations with death of an aged gentleman, a life-long citizen of this county, is ended one of the very many sad stories of the Virginia land boom of 1892. Mr. Alan Carper, aged eighty years, died at the home of his son, Mr. Charles Carper, Sunday morning of last week.

When the land boom struck Virginia, Mr. Carper was a happy, contented farmer, living on his little place a mile below Newcastle. His farm lay in the track of the Chesapeake and Ohio Rallroad and the Craig City Land, and Improvement Company purchased his farm. With the proceeds of this sale Mr. Carper bought a farm on Meadow Creek, some miles above here. It was the property of Hon. James W. Marshall, and sold when land was very high.

The boom went down and the price of land fell and Mr. Carper falled in his expectations of making the new farm pay. He fell behind in his payments to Judge Marshall and a suit followed. This suit dragged through all the iower courts and finally reached the Supreme Court courts and finally reached the Supreme

This is such an injustice to the white people of and shall resist your action before the den, of Fincastle, but the Supreme Court sustained the opinion, and the judgment was executed a few weeks ago. Since that time Mr. Carper's health has been rapidly declining. He is well of Fincastle, but the Supreme connected in this county, and has been a type of fine manhood, superior health and strength and has rarely been ill in his long life. His remains were interred in the consecrated spot upon his old farm in which rests the dust of his family.

Darling mother, thou hast left us,
And we long for thee in vain;
But we know that theou are freed from
All thy earthly care and pain.
Freed from suffering, thy spirit,
And in peaceful rest, thy soul;
Dearest mother, thou has entered
In the blessed, heavenly goal.

But our lonely hearts are aching For the face and smile we mis For the face and smile we miss,
And we long for the dear mother
Whom we never more shall kiss.
Home's sweet sunshine seems to vanish,
As thy face no more we see,
And without thy loving presence,
It no more as home can be.

And thy place, forever vacant,
Will bring memories of the past,
And our hearts will e'er be aching
For the times that could not last.
We, perhaps, have caused thee sorrow,
That we did not wish to do.
But we know thou hast forgiven,
Dearest mother, kind and true.

INANIMATION IN THE SENATI

Few Senators Were Inclined to Discus Philippine Government Bill Under the Fifteen Minute

(By Associated Press :
WASHINGTON, June 2.—The House to-day, by a wote of 129 to 46, suspended the rules and adopted the joint resolution extending the thanks of Congress to Secretary of State John Hay, for his address upon the occasion of the McKinley Memorial Exercises last February. Unanimous consent for the considera-tion of this resolution was objected to by Mr. DeArmond, of Missouri, some time ago and to-day Mr. Clark, of Missouri, made a twentw minute speech in opposition to its adoption on the ground that Mr. Hay had abused armed Confederate Veteran delivered an eloquent defense of Mr. Hay's address denying that it contained anything that was objectionable from a political standpoint and Mr. Grosvener, of Ohio, who was in charge of the resolution, argued that Mr. Hay, in eulogozing the martyred President could not divorce the man from his achievements and his recerd as a manly partisan. Democrats voted with Mr. Clarke against the resolution among them being Jones, Virginia, and W. W. Kitchin, North Carolina.

Special orders were adopted for the consideration of the anti-anarchy bill and the bill to transfer certain forest re-serves to the agricultural department. The Senate bill to retire Surgeon Gen-eral Sternberg and the House bill to encourage salmon culture in Alaska, were defeated on motions to pass them under suspension of the rules.

In the Senate.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 2.—Little interest, either on the floor or in the galleries, was manifested in the Senate debate on the Philippine government bill

Mr. Hoar, reviewing the situation in the Philippines and referring to the outrages which had been committed, said:
"I don't charge these things upon the army. I charge them upon imperialism."
Early in the session some amendments were made to the bill by the Philippine Committee, the most important of which Committee, the most important of which related to the disposition of the public lands in the islands.

Eighth Annual Commencement Exercises and Society Celebration.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
BLACKSTONE, VA., June 2-The exercises of the eighth annual commence ment of the Hoge Academy began here yesterday with the baccalaureate sermon by Rev. L. W. Irwin, of Radford. This was delivered in the large Methodist Church, which was unable to accomadate all who attended, many remaining outside by the windows. It was pror by all who heard it as a grand effort.

In the same building at 8 o'clock last night, the address before the Y. M. C. A. night, the address before the I. M. C. A. of the academy was delivered by Rev. H. C. V. Campbell, of Salem. The audience again was too large for the building and those who heard Mr. Campbell pronounced big address as informer to rome even denis address as inferior to none ever de-
